Indigo withdraws fuel...

Fuel cost accounts for a significant chunk of a carrier's operational costs. Last year, Indigo was also the first Indian carrier to announce that they would levy fuel charge to offset the spike in ATF prices. A fuel charge of Rs 300 was levied from each passenger if the flight distance was up to 500 kilometres and the amount was Rs 400 for a distance of 501-1,000 kilometres. The fuel charge was Rs 550 for 1,001-1,500 kilometres, Rs 650 for 1,501-2,000 kilometres and Rs 800 for 2,001-3,000 kilometres. The amount was Rs 1,000 for 3,001 kilometres and above. With the removal of the fuel charge, the overall ticket price for an Indigo passenger will come down by at least Rs 300 and up to Rs 1,000. In recent times, there have been concerns in various quarters about rising airfares at a time when the decision was taken to increase an upward trajectory. Last month, the civil aviation ministry advised airlines to self-regulate and keep passengers' interest in mind while fixing the fares. While announcing the introduction of the fuel charge, Indigo, on October 5 last year, said the decision was on account of a significant increase in ATF prices.

"The TMC is not serious about strengthening or forging an alliance in Bengal. The TMC is busy pleasing and serving Prime Minister Narendra Modi to protect themselves from the clutches of the CBI and the ED," he told reporters in his constituency.

Referring to media reports that the TMC was willing to part with the two seats won by the Congress in 2019, Chowdhury said "The Congress is not going to beg before TMC for seats; we don't need their alms. Who are they to decide how many seats the party will contest? If needed, we will fight on our own; let the party high command take a call on it," highlighting his role in the ongoing CPI(M)-Congress alliance in West Bengal. Senior TMC MP Sougata Roy said, "Bodmouthing TMC and our party supremo Mamata Banerjee and alliance can't go hand in hand. The regular insults hurled at us by Chowdhury and some leaders of the Bengal Congress have to stop if the party wants an alliance. The Congress high command must rein in Adhir Chowdhury if they want an alliance in Bengal."

CHINA'S GLOBAL TIMES ALSO MENTIONS OF IMPROVED GLOBAL RELATIONS UNDER PM MODI'S LEADERSHIP

In a rare commendation, Global Times, a prominent Beijing-based Chinese media outlet, has published an article praising India's significant strides in economic development, social governance, and foreign policy under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

The article, penned by Zhang Jiadong, the Director of the Centre for South Asian Studies at Tsinghua University, Shanghai, highlights India's remarkable achievements over the past four years. It acknowledges India's robust economic growth, improvements in urban governance, and a shift in attitude towards international relations, notably with China.

"For example, when discussing the trade imbalance between China and India, Indian representatives earlier used to primarily focus on China's measures to reduce the trade imbalance. But now they are placing more emphasis on India's export potential," writes the author.

THE BHARAT NARRATIVE
The article notably commends India's proactive approach in fostering a "Bharat narrative," emphasizing the nation's economic and social progress.
